

How to get to Nieuwegein?

The easiest way is flying to the Amsterdam National Airport \(Schiphol\). From the airport you can catch a train to Utrecht. The train station is situated in the main hall of the Amsterdam airport. It takes about 30 minutes by train (fare: € 8,50 - tickets can be bought from the vending machines).

From Utrecht to Nieuwegein you can get a tram or a bus (N. 74 to Buizerdlaan). Tickets can be bought on board.

For more information about the trains (routes, tickets and times) visit the Dutch Railways
